ARTEK'S FOUNDER ALVAR AALTO THROUGH THE EYES OF SHIGERU BAN

Filling the whole of Barbican Art Gallery in London, this is the first major retrospective of work by Alvar Aalto to be held in the UK. The exhibition, which opens on February 22, is designed and curated by leading Japanese architect Shigeru Ban, renowned for his original use of materials such as paper tubes to create remarkable structures. The exhibition explores the themes linking these two influential architects and demonstrates how they share an organic approach to design as well as an aspiration for a humanitarian goal in architecture.

IDENTITY AT THE JEWISH THEATRE

Documentary film tradition in Israel is renowned for its sharp and poignant treatment of local, yet universal issues as alienation, immigration, injustice, the struggles of the peripheral people, private and national identity. During the spring, the Jewish Theatre initiates a discussion on these issues while presenting four Israeli film makers' social engagement and life philosophy as depicted in their films.
